THE RIVER & ROWING MUSEUM

The River & Rowing Museum is set in beautiful meadows adjacent to the River Thames in the picturesque town of Henley on Thames.

The building by architect David Chipperfield is a stunning modernist structure of concrete and glass clad in green oak. Function rooms offer wonderful views of the river and meadows set amongst some stunning objects celebrating our sporting heritage.

An aesthetically striking, sporting venue.

The Museum is a fantastic venue for a variety of corporate and private uses. Ideally situated in the beautiful town of Henley on Thames - famed around the globe for its Regatta. A highly accessible venue with easy access to the major road networks via the M40.

Every event is a unique occasion. The Museum's Event team ensures that arrangements are individually tailored to suit your requirements.

The Museum is fully equipped with the latest audio visual presentation equipment and offers an excellent catering service.

Catering is provided by digby trout Restaurants to the finest standards & we will be happy to tailor our menu to your needs.
