NATIONAL WATERFRONT MUSEUM, SWANSEA

The National Waterfront Museum is a £30.8 million landmark building with fantastic views over Swansea's Marina.

Stunning slate and glass architecture combine harmoniously with the historic quayside warehouse. Internal features and facilities were designed to the highest specifications to provide a home for the national treasures that tell Wales's story of industry and innovation. A culturally dynamic venue.

This prestigious building can be hired for private and corporate events with flexible spaces for 10 to 600 people, be it a conference, reception, intimate gathering, private party or public presentation.

Its location in the Maritime Quarter is ideal. Centrally located just yards from the heart of the city with easy access from the M4, the Waterfront Museum is well served by regular train services.

With digby trout providing outstanding catering and fully equipped kitchens in addition to our unique spaces, we have the perfect ingredients for any event.

What you can host at the Museum

Warehouse Gallery

Situated in the historic section of the building, this magnificent former warehouse will prove to be a spectacular venue, whatever the event. It's spacious with wonderful views overlooking the Marina providing the perfect setting. You will be surrounded by history, yet 21st-century innovation allows the opening up of the floor area for a grand sit-down meal, an awards ceremony, presentation or an informal buffet and reception for up to 180 people. We have full IT and AV capacity, and adjustable lighting to create just the right ambience.

The Street

What a setting! It's here that the city meets the waterfront. This stunning glass canopied area will stimulate all your senses and provide the perfect scene for any event. You will be in the heart of the Museum where it is light and airy. Perfect for exhibitions, enchanting music, entertainment and sumptuous food.

Courtyard & Colonnades

Sitting perfectly between the Museum's historic quayside warehouse and impressive glass and slate architecture you will find the secluded courtyard. Its setting is ideal for an outdoor event, a picnic, barbeque, performance or trade and craft fair. There is also ample room for a marquee. Combine this with our Colonnade which sits on the ground floor of the old warehouse and you have the ideal venue for any occasion.

Meeting Rooms

Both the Dockside room with its stunning views over the marina and the more intimate Cityside room have full AV facilities, or there is the exclusive Glass room floating over the Main Street all of which provide unique spaces for meetings, workshops, lectures and presentations.

Marina Balcony

Imagine sipping a glass of champagne while watching the sun set over Swansea Marina. From one of our three balconies, you can do just this and much, much more. Our magnificent Marina Balcony is ideal for meeting and greeting guests. Here you can whet your appetite with an aperitif and take in the wonderful views over the Maritime Quarter.
